RULES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

1. Calling the roll. Reading minutes of last meeting. Amendment and approval.
2. The presentation of petitions, communications and bills. All bills must be dated, itemized and properly O.K.'d or they will be rejected by the Board; and such bills must be filed on or before twelve o'clock Friday noon, preceding the first day of the meeting. Such bills must be laid before the Board before being referred to the appropriate committees.
3. Reports of Standing Committees, according to the order established by Rule 17, after which reports from special committees.
4. Resolutions and unfinished business.
5. All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided without debate.
6. The chairman shall preserve order and decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Board, without debate.
7. Every member previous to his speaking shall rise and address the chair.
8. When two or more members shall arise at the same time the chair shall name member who is first to speak.
9. No member shall speak more than twice on the same subject without the consent of the Board and shall not occupy more than fifteen minutes the first time nor more than five minutes the second time.

10. A member called to order by the chair or by any member of Board, shall immediately take his seat and if there be no appeal, the decision of the chair shall be conclusive.
11. Every member present, upon the putting of a question, shall vote thereon unless excused by the Board or unless he is personally interested.
12. No motion shall be debated or put unless first seconded. When the motion is seconded it shall be stated by the chair before debate, and every such motion shall be reduced to writing if required by the Chair or by any member of the Board.
13. On any proposition involving different sums or different periods of time, the question shall first be put upon the largest sum or the longest period of time.
14. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order and shall be decided without debate, unless a question of time to adjourn shall occur.
15. All committees shall be appointed by the Chair unless otherwise directed by the Board.
16. All committees shall report in writing with the statement of facts and their opinion thereon and the report to be signed by the committee.
17. There shall be fourteen (14) standing Committees to be appointed on the following subjects: Road & Bridge, Finance, Bonds & Insurance, Books & Stationery, Supervisors' Claims, County Farm, Court House, Miscellaneous, Abatement, Investigation, Jail, Bovine, and Pauper Aid.

18. No alterations shall be made in any of the rules of the Board of Supervisors without the consent of the majority of the members thereof, nor without one day's notice being given of the motion thereof.

19. After a motion is stated by the Chairman, or read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Board, but it may be withdrawn by the mover any time before the decision.

20. These rules may be suspended in any particular case by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

ELECTIONS

Township elections are held the same day as Town Meetings (first Tuesday in April), odd numbered years. Town officers (except Cemetery Commissioners and School Trustees) are elected for a term of four years. School Trustees and Cemetery Commissioners are elected for a term of six years.

General elections are held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of even numbered years. All County Officers are elected for a term of four years.

City and Village elections are held on the third Tuesday of April, odd numbered years.

Judicial elections for Circuit Judges are held every six years. The next Judicial election will be held on the first Monday of June, 1963.

Township Clerks should post notices of each place where election is to be held in three public places, in each precinct, at least ten days before Township elections.

Township Clerks should deliver to Judges of election and they should post in each voting precinct, cards of instruction and specimen ballots at least five days before Township election.

Certificates of nomination and statement of candidacy must be filed with Township Clerk at least thirty-five days before election.

Withdrawal of Nominees must be filed within five days after last of filing nomination papers.

Absent Voters' Ballots. Absent qualified voters must make application to Township Clerk for Township Election. In County or General Election, application must be made to the County Clerk. Application by mail must be made not more than thirty days nor less than five days before election. Application by personal delivery must be made not more than thirty days nor less than three days before election.

Judges of Township Elections should make returns of elections to Town Clerks. They in turn should send the list of officers elected and certificates to County Clerk, and a certificate of election to each officer elected.

Judges of County and General Elections should make returns of elections to County Clerk, and the County Clerk then issues certificate of election to all County Officials elected.

Township officers should qualify within twenty days after being notified of their election.

Supervisors should file bond of Ex-Officio Treasurer of the Road and Bridge Fund with the County Clerk within 20 days after election.

Police Magistrates, Justices of the Peace, and Constables should file bond with County Clerk within twenty days after election.

LAWS REGARDING PERMANENT REGISTRATION

Counties Under 500,000 - Registration Required - Exceptions (Par. 153.1 Ch. 46, Illinois Revised Statutes, Section 1.) Except as hereinafter provided, it shall be unlawful for any person residing in a county containing a population of less than 500,000 to vote at any primary, general or special election at which any state officers are to be nominated or elected unless such person is at the time of such election a registered voter under the provisions of this Act.

The provisions of this Act shall not apply to electors voting in any city, village, incorporated town, park district, school district, drainage district, township, road district or sanitary district election, or to electors residing in cities, villages and incorporated towns in this State which have adopted "An Act regulating the holding of elections and declaring the result thereof in cities, villages and incorporated towns in this State." approved June 19, 1885, as amended.

Qualifications for Registration - Residence. (Par. 153.2, Ch. 46, R.S.) 2. No person shall be entitled to be registered in and from any precinct unless such person shall by the date of the election next following have resided in the State one year, within the County ninety days, and within the precinct thirty days and be otherwise qualified to vote at such election. Every applicant who shall be twenty-one years of age or over on the day of the next election shall be permitted to register, if otherwise qualified.

To constitute residence under this Act a permanent abode and dwelling place within the precinct are necessary.

No information contained in the register of voters, except the name and address of the voter, shall be given by the officer in charge of registration cards, nor shall they be copied by any person except in those cases where the information given on the copy made or desired is for the purpose of determining the question of the exercise of the right to vote, to sign a primary petition, or to hold an appointive office with respect to which the political affiliation of the appointee is by law a factor.

Transfer of Registration - Change of Name. (Par. 153.16, Ch. 46, R.S.) 16. Any registered voter who changes his residence from one address to another within the same county wherein this Act is in effect, may have his registration transferred to his new address by making and signing an application for change of residence address upon a form to be provided by the County Clerk. Such application must be made to the office of the county clerk and may be made either in person or by mail. In case the person is unable to sign his name, the county clerk shall require him to execute the application in the presence of the county clerk or of his properly authorized representative, by his mark, and if satisfied of the identity of the person, the county clerk shall make the transfer.

Upon receipt of the application, the county clerk, or one of his employees deputized to take registrations, shall cause the signature of the voter and the data appearing upon the application to be compared with the signature and data on the registration record card, and if it appears that the applicant is the same person as the person previously registered under that name, the transfer shall be made.

Transfers of registration under the provisions of this section may be made not later than the twenty-eighth day prior to an election at which such voter would be entitled to vote. When a removal of a registered voter takes place from one address to another within the same precinct within a period during which a transfer of registration cannot be made, before any election or primary, he shall be entitled to vote upon presenting to the judges of election his affidavit of a change of residence address.

Any registered voter who changes his or her name by marriage or otherwise, shall be required to register anew and authorize the cancellation of the previous registration; but if the change of name takes place within a period during which such new registration cannot be made, next preceding any election or primary, the elector may, if otherwise qualified, vote upon making an affidavit before the judges of election.

A BIT OF HISTORY

DeWitt County is situated near the center of the state, the geographical center of Illinois being located but a few miles from the southern boundary. Its greatest length from east to west is thirty miles and from north to south sixteen miles, and it contains an area of 415 square miles.

The first land entries were made the third day of November, 1827, as follows: James K. Scott entered the East Half of the Northeast Quarter of Section Twenty-seven; and Samuel P. Glenn the East Half of the Southwest Quarter of Section Twenty-six; both being in Town Twenty-one, Range One.

The history of DeWitt County differs from that of many sister counties in that its pioneers became permanent settlers. The first settlers in the present boundaries of DeWitt County were Zion Shugart, Edom Shugart and their mother; Elisha Butler and his wife, and John Coppenbarger. The party arrived in what is now Section Seven, Tunbridge Township, on October 29, 1824.

The territory now embraced by DeWitt County was first a part of Sangamon County, which, in the early history of the State, included all the northern part of Illinois. Later it became a part of Tazewell County, which was again divided, and this territory was placed in Macon and McLean Counties. Through the effort of Hon. James Allen of Bloomington, the legislature in 1839, passed an act organizing DeWitt County, from territory taken from the counties of Macon and McLean; the county line between these two counties running four miles south of the present northern boundary of DeWitt County.

On March 1, 1839, an election was held for county officers, and for permanent location of a county seat, when four hundred ninety-three votes were cast. The founders of Marion (now DeWitt) were as ambitious as their neighbors in Clinton for the location of the county seat and a contest resulted in the following vote:
Clinton - 313 and Marion - 180.

The civil government of the County of DeWitt was conducted by boards of County Commissioners, consisting of three members from the date of its organization, May 15, 1839, to December 1, 1849. The administrative duties then devolved on County Courts, composed of one County Judge and two associate justices.

In 1859, the present system, government of the county be a Board of Supervisors, superceded the county court, and has conducted the affairs of the county ever since. The Board is now composed of thirteen supervisors and two assistant supervisors.

The Board of Commissioners held their first meeting on May 15, 1839, at Clinton. The first orders made by the board had reference to a political subdivision of the county into six precincts, to wit: Sangamon, Mount Pleasant, Marion, Clinton, Long Point, and New Castle. Later the board organized a seventh precinct - Waynesville - from parts of New Castle and Long Point.

Henry Dishon contracted for the building of a court house, to be completed by September, 1839, and for which the county was to pay the sum of sixteen hundred four dollars. The court house was completed, as contracted for, and was received by the commissioners on the second of September.

The second court house was completed and received by the board in June, 1849.

The first Board of Supervisors took charge of the government of the county on June 6, 1859. This Board consisted of: George A. Hume, Wapella, Chairman; Wilson Allen, Texas; B. G. Lisenby, Creek; Hiram Chandler, Nixon; A. A. Eads, Barnett; W. B. Smith, Clintonia; John D. Hutchin, Tunbridge; James Millmore, Harp; Edward O. Day, DeWitt; Thomas C. Robb, Waynesville; C. S. Cain, Wilson; R. R. Knight, Santa Anna; Jonathan Pearson, Rutledge.

On August 10, 1839, the first session of the Probate Court was held, being presided over by Fleming G. Paine.

The first term of the Circuit Court was held on October 24, 1839, with the Hon. Samuel T. Treat sitting on the bench. D. B. Campbell was the State's Attorney.

On October 13, 1854, the first issue of the first paper published in DeWitt County, made its appearance. It was called The DeWitt Courier.

The first school of record was kept on Jacob Coppenbarger's farm in Tunbridge Township in the year 1829.

The first society or "church meeting" was organized and held in the year 1829 at the home of Judge William Lowery, one and one-half miles east of Kenney.

WAYNESVILLE - The oldest town of DeWitt County was platted and two plats filed on June 4, 1832. It was named in honor of General Anthony Wayne, and at this time was a part of McLean County. In the fall of 1863 the town was incorporated as a village under a general act of the legislature.

CLINTON - The first village plat was made October 3, 1836, by James Allen and Jesse M. Fell. It was named in honor of DeWitt Clinton, former governor of New York. Steps taken toward incorporating the town of Clinton were in the fall of 1853, the village then containing but a few hundred inhabitants.

FARMER CITY - The town of Mount Pleasant, now Farmer City, was laid out January 23, 1837. The name was changed to Farmer City by popular vote in 1868.

WAPELLA - This town was laid out by David A. Neal in the fall of 1854, the first lots being sold the next spring. Neal was then vice-president of the Illinois Central Railroad and gave it a name, and it was first spelled Wapellah. The question of moving the county seat from Clinton to Wapella was voted in 1857 and again in 1879 but the effort failed. The meeting for incorporating the town was held on the 9th day of February, 1867.

KENNEY - The original town plat contained forty acres and was laid out by Moses Kenney in 1871. The village was incorporated in the fall of 1875, when six trustees and a clerk were elected.

HALLSVILLE - This village was platted in 1871 by Jonathan Hall. The first home was moved from Tunbridge Township that fall. The DeWitt County Nursing Home adjoins the village on the northwest.

WELDON - This town was placed on record in the fall of 1873 although it was surveyed and platted in the spring of 1872. The town was named in honor of Lawrence Weldon. The first house was built by C. S. Lisenby in 1872. The post office was established in 1873.

LANE - As the post office is called, was surveyed on February 5, 1873, on land owned by Tillman Lane. It contained three blocks of eight lots each.

MIDLAND CITY - It was laid out and platted in the interest of Robert Black in 1875 and was first named Dunham. The Midland Railroad Company was in favor of retaining the old name, but Mr. Black succeeded in carrying the day and hence the old sign Dunham was taken down and that of Midland City was erected.

WHAT IS SUCCESS?

It's doing your work the best you can,
And being just to your fellow man;
It's making money, but holding friends,
And staying true to your aims and ends;
It's figuring how and learning why,
And looking forward and thinking high,
And dreaming a little and doing much;
It's keeping always in closest touch
With what is finest in word and deed;
It's being thorough, yet making speed;
It's daring blithely the field of chance
While making labor a brave romance.
It's going onward despite defeat,
And fighting staunchly, but keeping sweet;
It's being clean and it's playing fair;
It's laughing lightly at Dame Despair;
It's looking up to the stars above,
And drinking deeply of life and love;
It's struggling on with the will to win,
But taking loss with a cheerful grin;
It's sharing sorrow, and work, and mirth,
And making better this good old earth;
It's serving, striving, through strain and stress;
It's doing your noblest -- that's success.
